

CAAIEYC

Director's Roundtable Pre-conference Event
at Messiah College, Hostetter Chapel

March 11, from 1-3pm

Featuring

2011 Conference Keynote speaker
Lois Rosenberry

Lois Rosenberry will share her entrepreneurial story of the founding and growth of Children's Discovery Center, Inc., Toledo, OH. She will provide insight into overcoming adversity and challenges to emerge as one of the largest for-profit child care companies in North America.

As co-author of Inspiring Spaces for Young Children, she will introduce the Seven Principles of Design that have been implemented at her centers to create beautiful learning spaces that provide children with an intriguing environment where they can learn and grow.

Photographs showing before and after classroom spaces will enrich the session. Lois and her daughter, Jessica DeViney, will answer your questions regarding how you too can create a beautiful and authentic learning space for young children.

See registration form for more details!

Registration is also available on the PA key website.